IN SUPREME COURT

A14-1914

In re Petition for Disciplinary Action against
Robert David Boedigheimer, a Minnesota Attorney,
Registration No. 206453.

ORDER

On November 12, 2014, the Director of the Office of Lawyers Professional Responsibility filed a petition for disciplinary action alleging that respondent Robert David Boedigheimer committed professional misconduct warranting public discipline, namely, that respondent conspired to commit money laundering, laundered money, and made a false statement to an Internal Revenue Service agent, in violation of Minn. R. Prof. Conduct 8.4(b), (c), and (d). A federal jury found respondent guilty of the felony offenses described in the petition, and respondent is awaiting sentencing.

On November 12, 2014, the Director filed a petition for temporary suspension. See Rule 16, Rules on Lawyers Professional Responsibility (RLPR). The Director alleges that the facts of the petition demonstrate that continuation of respondent's authority to practice law poses a substantial threat of serious harm to the public. Respondent has entered into a stipulation with the Director in which they jointly recommend that respondent be temporarily suspended pending final determination of this disciplinary matter.

This court has independently reviewed the file and approves the jointly recommended disposition.

Based upon all the files, records, and proceedings herein,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. Respondent Robert David Boedigheimer is temporarily suspended from the practice of law as of the date of this order, pending final resolution of the disciplinary proceedings in this matter; and

2. Respondent shall comply with Rule 26, RLPR (requiring notice of suspension to clients, opposing counsel, and tribunals).
