IN SUPREME COURT

C7-89-1030

In Re Petition for Disciplinary Action against Lawrence Randal Pebbles, an Attorney at Law of the State of Minnesota.

ORDER

The Director of Lawyers Professional Responsibility filed an initial petition with this court in which it was alleged that the respondent, Lawrence Randal Pebbles, had been convicted of a felony as defined in Rule 10(c), Rules on Lawyers Professional Responsibility (RLPR), and, therefore, subject to public discipline. Subsequently, the Director filed a second petition seeking temporary suspension of respondent from the practice of law pursuant to Rule 16, RLPR. The respondent failed to answer said petition for temporary suspension within 20 days. Therefore, the allegations of the petition are deemed admitted. Rule 16(c), RLPR.

The respondent has likewise failed to answer the initial petition seeking public discipline. Consequently, the allegations of the initial petition are likewise deemed to be admitted. Rule 13, RLPR.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

1. That pursuant to Rule 16(b), RLPR, the respondent is hereby temporarily suspended from the practice of law pending the outcome of these proceedings.

2. That pursuant to Rule 13, RLPR, the allegations of the original petition alleging professional misconduct, and the conviction of a crime as defined in Rule 10(c), RLPR, are deemed admitted pursuant to Rule 13(b), RLPR.

3. That a hearing on the appropriate discipline will be heard by the full court on the 12th day of September, 1989. That the respondent and the Director may submit proposed dispositions to the court by written briefs by filing the same as provided by the rules within 15 days of the date of the hearing.

Dated: July 6, 1989.
