ORDER

Petitioner David L. Brehmer was disbarred in 2002 for “an ongoing pattern of serious misconduct,” including neglect of client matters, failure to communicate with clients, failure to return client files and unearned fees, failure to provide an accounting of services, failure to inform clients of his suspension, failure to pay judgments against him in favor of former clients, improper trust account practices and record keeping, and failure to pay certain federal and state taxes. In re Brehmer, 642 N.W.2d 431, 433-34 (Minn. 2002).

In 2007, Brehmer petitioned for reinstatement to the practice of law. A panel of the Lawyers Professional Responsibility Board conducted a hearing on the petition and, in November 2009, recommended that reinstatement be denied. The Director of the Office of Lawyers Professional Responsibility has filed a motion to confirm the panel’s recommendation. Brehmer has not opposed the Director’s motion.

Based upon all the files, records, and proceedings herein,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the motion of the Director of the Office of Lawyers Professional Responsibility to confirm the recommendation of a panel of the Lawyers Professional Responsibility Board that petitioner David L. Brehmer not be reinstated to the practice of law be, and the same is, granted. Should petitioner seek reinstatement in the future, he shall comply with Rules 18(a)–(e), Rules on Lawyers Professional Responsibility.
