an Attorney at Law of the State of Minnesota.

STIPULATION FOR DISCIPLINE

THIS STIPULATION is entered into by and between Edward J. Cleary, Director of the Office of Lawyers Professional Responsibility, hereinafter Director, and Daniel Francis Jambor, attorney, hereinafter respondent.

WHEREAS, respondent has concluded it is in respondent's best interest to enter into this stipulation,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between the undersigned as follows:

1. Pursuant to the Rules on Lawyers Professional Responsibility (RLPR), the parties agree to dispense with further proceedings under Rule 14, RLPR, and respondent agrees to the immediate disposition of this matter by the Minnesota Supreme Court under Rule 15, RLPR.

2. Respondent understands this stipulation, when filed, will be of public record.

3. It is understood that respondent has certain rights pursuant to Rule 14, RLPR. Respondent waives these rights, which include the right to a hearing before a referee on the petition; to have the referee make findings and conclusions and a recommended disposition; to contest such findings and conclusions; and to a hearing before the Supreme Court upon the record, briefs and arguments.

4. Respondent withdraws his answer to the September 15, 2000, petition for revocation of probation and for further disciplinary action filed herein, acknowledges that, pursuant to Rule 13(b), RLPR, the allegations of the January 17, 2001, and April 6, 2001, amended and supplementary petitions for revocation of probation and for further disciplinary action may be deemed admitted, and, except as noted below, unconditionally admits the allegations of those petitions, which may be summarized as follows:

a. Respondent, while on probation, failed to cooperate with disciplinary proceedings, engaged in a pattern of frivolous and retaliatory litigation, neglected client matters and failed to adequately communicate with his clients, and made false and misleading statements to clients and others.

b. The Director hereby withdraws the allegations contained in the fourth count of the April 6, 2001, amended and supplementary petition for revocation of probation and for further disciplinary action.

c. Respondent specifically does not admit the allegations contained in the fifth count of the April 6, 2001, amended and supplementary petition for revocation of probation and for further disciplinary action, but acknowledges that, due to his failure to file an answer, those allegations may be deemed admitted for the purposes of these proceedings.

5. Respondent understands that based upon these admissions, this Court may impose any of the sanctions set forth in Rule 15(a)(1) - (9), RLPR, including making any disposition it deems appropriate. Respondent understands that by entering into this stipulation, the Director is not making any representations as to the sanctions the Court will impose.

6. The Director and respondent join in recommending that the appropriate discipline is a two-year suspension commencing June 29, 2001, pursuant to Rule 15, RLPR. The reinstatement hearing provided for in Rule 18, RLPR, is not waived. Reinstatement is conditioned upon: (1) payment of costs in the amount of $900 plus
